Salesian Gospel Roads – Gospel Roads is a week-long service retreat for young people. The program is coordinated by the Salesian Youth Ministry Office in New York, in collaboration with local ministries in the eastern United States, Canada, and Central America. Through hands-on experience, participants and their team leaders grow as Christian disciples who are called to live the Gospel in joyful service with the young and the poor. Each Gospel Roads program is unique, but all include serving with the poor, living in community, and meeting Jesus through prayer.

Director, Gospel Roads – Long Island – July 2014 – organized program based out of St. Thomas More.

- Assembled core team of eight adult and young adult volunteers
- Developed itinerary with team
- Identified and coordinated worksites
- Resolved logistic items
- Trained young team (college students with prior GR participant experience that assist core team)
